President Holden announced this is a special meeting to hear the Treasurer's Report. The Treasurer is delayed due to traffic.

Councilor Johnson announced the Treasurer's report was given to them this evening. She asked to define the changes from this report to the one in the February 16, 2012 Council binder. Ms. Andrews said there were no changes.

President Holden acknowledged Maxine Brown who completed a request form wishing to speak. Maxine Brown asked why there was a staff reduction in the Parking Enforcement Officers. President Holden indicated this was due to economic conditions. The street light at Myra Avenue and Holly Road is not operational. President Holden said this will be reviewed. President Holden mentioned her stop sign request. The engineer will review this matter.

Councilor Johnson asked why the Borough Manager signed the insurance renewal questionnaire stating there were no layoffs. Ms. Andrews stated the form was executed prior to Council taking this action.

President Holden called for a recess at 6:15 pm. There was a discussion about the special meeting, public participation, and the lack of an agenda. There was lots of audience conversation. President Holden repeated the announcement that Council was in recess; and, he would take no more public comment. Councilor Johnson said this was a special meeting; and, all citizens are allowed to speak, not just one resident. President Holden repeated the purpose of the meeting was for the Treasurer's report. President Holden announced again that Council was in recess.

President Holden called the meeting back to order at 6:30 pm. Councilor Kemp was not present at the time the meeting was called back to order.
