

Yeadon Youth Police Academy

Yeadon Police proudly announces its 1st Annual Youth Police Academy. The program will run (9) weeks, beginning September 19, 2018 ending with a graduation on November 14, 2018. The academy is free, and class size is limited to 12 students of the William Penn School District grades 9-12.

The Yeadon Youth Police Academy will create a challenging atmosphere, and provide students with an inside look at what it takes to be a police officer. This program will create confidence, self-discipline, physical fitness awareness, and foster team-building mindsets. Instructors are police officers with a strong desire to open lines of communication with today's youth. Today's youth are tomorrow's police officers, and the drive to motivate interested students in pursuing a law enforcement profession is tantamount to creating positive police and public interactions for our futures.
