

Supporting Students' Social and Emotional Growth (Parent Workshop)

with national award winning teacher and speaker R. Keith Matheny

November 10th and November 12th Parent Virtual Workshop
6:30pm-8:00PM

What is Social and Emotional Learning and why is it important?

What is going on with the teenage brain? How can we use that understanding to better support teens and help them manage their emotions and make positive decisions?

How can we help support students' emotional health during COVID?

What does effective SEL look like in schools and in communities?

How can we support building transformative programs for students?

What are participants saying about Keeth's sessions?

"OUTSTANDING! ENGAGING! MY KIDS NEED THIS! Thank you!"

"Super useful and inspiring, so glad this work is happening in schools; I plan to use a bunch of the things from the workshop at home."

Must Pre-register using this link: (click below)

https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZlsduugrzMtG9LFTzhjc\_dfCb8s-x5a9Nvg

Keeth Matheny is a national award winning teacher, author and speaker. He was a 2015 winner of the Crystal Star Award for Excellence in supporting student success from the National Dropout Prevention Center. He is the founder of SEL Launchpad an organization that provides SEL professional development all over the US, and has launched SEL programs in over 300 schools. Keeth is a co-author of School-Connect a research and evidence-based social and emotional learning curriculum now in over 2000 secondary schools. He is a frequent public speaker and keynote on SEL, MTSS, and emotional intelligence. His work has been featured in national webinars, magazine articles and journals of best practices. In the recent past he has presented at two congressional briefings in Washington DC and over twenty national education conferences.